PROGRAM CHARACTERISTICS AND PERFORMANCE GOALS

Overview

The major in Music Business merges business and musical expertise, preparing the graduate to enter the music industry with an ability to interact with professionals in both disciplines. The core program includes traditional music curricula and coursework in business, management, marketing, promotion, and communication. The degree is intended for students interested in music merchandising, small business ownership, venue administration, copyright licensing and clearance administration, music publishing, talent management, or music-oriented entrepreneurship. Due to the scale of the industry, the program allows students to develop a specific area of expertise via elective selection. The degree includes with an internship and also provides the student with a Minor in Business Administration.

Student Preparation

The program will accept students who are admitted to Lindenwood University.

Faculty Characteristics

All faculty for this program will possess a master's degree or higher from an accredited institution. They will also have work experience in the field of music. Whenever possible, faculty will have teaching experience and management experience. When adjunct faculty are utilized, they will be working professionals who are also qualified college instructors, ensuring that content remains current. Textbooks and objectives for courses taught by adjuncts are determined by full-time faculty.

Student and Program Outcomes

According to the 2001 Occupational Outlook Handbook, graduates of this program will be prepared to work in a variety of sectors within the music industry, including retail management, small business ownership, talent management, marketing, promotions, venue management, and music publishing.

Alumni and Employer Survey

Alumni and employer surveys are not planned.
