Legislative Session Preview: FY 22 Budget Outlook and Making the Case for Higher Education

Coordinating Board for Higher Education
December 9, 2020

BACKGROUND

The First Regular Session of the 101th General Assembly will begin on January 6, 2021. Pre-filing of legislation began on Monday, December 2. While lawmakers will introduce policies that could impact higher education, the primary focus and the top priority for the department is restoring core funding for institutions and continuing to support Missouri's student financial aid programs.

CURRENT STATUS

During the CBHE public session, Senate Appropriations Chairman Dan Hegeman (R-Cosby) and House Budget Chairman Cody Smith (R-Carthage) will share insight on the budget outlook and what it means for higher education funding.
