

Missouri Department of Higher Education

Higher Education Headlines

February 29, 2016

Note: A link will no longer provide access to some news stories. Those stories appear in their entirety at the end of this document, as indicated.

University of Missouri should not fret over bill lifting degree restrictions, MSU president says, Feb. 29

Area lawmakers seek to reverse UM cuts in wake of Click firing, Feb. 26

New bill cuts restrictions for universities to make graduate programs, Feb. 26

10 revealing details in the Melissa Click investigation, Feb. 26

Fixing a broken freshman year: What an overhaul might look like, Feb. 25

Pending legislation could change doctoral program process, Feb. 25

Campus safety bill passes house committee, Feb. 25

University of Missouri curators vote to fire Melissa Click, Feb. 25

MSU seeks to overturn key provisions of 2005 name change law, Feb. 25

Melissa Click calls firing by University of Missouri curators unfair, Feb. 25

House budget committee reviews proposed UM System budget cuts, Feb. 24

Representative: Proposed Mizzou budget cuts would hurt Missouri's economy, Feb. 24

Bill would let MSU create doctoral programs without University of Missouri involvement, Feb. 24

UM could see $8M cut under Missouri House budget plan, Feb. 24

House committee proposes $8M in cuts to UM System funding, Feb. 23

Missouri House passes tuition caps for post-9/11 student military veterans, Feb. 23

Budget plan targets Click salary and University of Missouri administration for cuts, Feb. 23

MU and Missouri legislature forge contentious relationship during period of campus unrest, Feb. 22

Missouri's appealing option for college savings just got better, Feb. 21

University of Missouri fundraising takes $6M hit in December as donors hold back funds, Feb. 21

Teams from Missouri, Kansas win EPA grants, Feb. 18

Undocumented students look outside of Missouri for college due to tuition spikes, Feb. 18