

Missouri Department of Higher Education

Higher Education Headlines

June 27, 2016

Note: A link will no longer provide access to some news stories. Those stories appear in their entirety at the end of this document, as indicated.

Support higher ed goals, June 27

Top MSU, OTC officials support federal push to reinstate year-round Pell grants, June 27

MOHELA: Service expansion, June 27

Don Claycomb ready to retire after 23 years, June 26

State Sen. David Pearce, educators celebrate bill during appearance at MU, June 25

New law makes A+ Scholarship program available to private HS students, June 24

Pearce celebrates 'home run' higher education bill, June 24

Missouri extends tuition-free college offer to private high school students, June 24

Spending a few extra years in college may cost you more than you think, June 21

Lobby hard for public funds to build crucial downtown UMKC arts campus, June 21

Middleton blames complacent leaders, 'perfect storm' for outcome of University of Missouri protests, June 21