

Missouri Learning Commons Scholars

Experienced course redesign faculty have been chosen as Missouri Learning Commons (MLC) Scholars to support course redesign on their own and other campuses. MLC Scholars will provide one-on-one support and hold mini workshops to help faculty with redesigning courses. MLC Scholars will also be available for consultation by phone.

For more information or to have one of the scholars present at a workshop or provide one-on-one assistance in redesigning a course, go to
